

Rachel G

Waikato

Experience

Rachel lives in The Meadows, Flagstaff and has been involved in Home Based Education and Care for over 28 years.

Rachel has two grown daughters and is a Nana to 3 beautiful grandchildren, who are her world. Rachel values family and friends highly, while being a part of an active community who value and support the health and well-being of children.

Childcare Philosophy

Rachel encourages her care children to be independent learners and support one another.

Community Involvement

Rachel makes the most of local parks and events within the Kids at Home programme, attending our Kids At Home playgroup, gymnastics and termly special events. These groups support children's development and learning, all while having fun in a social environment.
